For the past two decades Jacaranda FM and Spar have produced an annual Christmas concert that features some of South Africa's most prominent names in music. On 7 December 2022, the Spar Carols by Candlelight event will take place in Pretoria at the SunBet Arena Time Square during a live performance, and the concert will also be streamed across the world for those who want to watch the soul-stirring concert with their families at home.

"For the past two years we've watched top-tier musicians perform to an empty arena whilst we stream the magic of Carols by Candlelight. Similarly, a wonderful venue like the SunBet Arena at Time Square has been empty for the better part of two years. This year we're extremely excited to celebrate 20 years of partnership with Spar, and look forward to combining the delight of a live concert with the pleasure of being able to watch the performances at home through this new hybrid event," said Deirdre King, managing director of Jacaranda FM.

This year, the beneficiaries are:

3. Look Forward Orphanage, Gauteng
4. Juno Aurora Home, Gauteng
5. The Hanna Charity, Gauteng
6. Yenzani Children’s Home, Midrand
7. New Jerusalem Children’s HomeHome, Midrand
8. Boitumelong Early Learning Centre, Alexandra
9. Siyathanda Stimulation Centre, Daveyton

“What a milestone to celebrate a 20-year partnership with Jacaranda FM! We’re very proud to headline an event that sees top-tier musicians collaborate in the spirit of goodwill to usher in the festive season. More importantly, the donations collected during this incredible event make sure that young girls and boys from children's homes across South Africa feel valued and special this Christmas with a gift of their own," said Maxine D'Amico, Spar Inland Advertising and Promotions Manager

R50 per ticket gets you a seat at the most anticipated festive concert of the year, kids under three enter for free, and those who prefer to cosy-up and watch the concert from the comfort of their homes can join by visiting www.jacarandafm.com.

"Last year we raised just under R300,000 for Mzansi's most vulnerable children, this year we're hoping to raise even more with our hybrid live-streaming event. We only have 7,000 seats available for the live event so make sure you book your tickets early," adds King.

For those who can't join or want to re-experience the magic of Christmas carols like you've never heard before – Spar carols by Candlelight will be rebroadcast on 24 December.

Last year Spar Carols by Candlelight united over 140,000 carolers from as far as the United States Of America, Canada, and Botswana for the festivities.
