South African radio legend Tony Blewitt will soon be heard across central South African homes and businesses when he joins OFM on 2 February.

Tony will present the Saturday program between 16:00 - 19:00 and will also take over the reins of the ever popular Gold Retold Sundays between 9:00 - 13:00. Blewitt says that he is delighted to join OFM and promises listeners, a show filled with humour and a blend of great music.

Born and bred in England, Blewitt has an illustrious broadcasting experience. He was first heard on the U.K's Luxembourg Radio 208 before moving to South Africa and joining Capital Radio where he presented the station's prime time spot. Blewitt has worked with some of the countries best media including 5fm, 94.7 Highveld stereo, CNBC and Summit TV.

Blewitt now presents 'Breakfast with Blewitt' on Mix 93.8 FM and will present his new shows on OFM simultaneously.

Fans of Blewitt and OFM who wish to meet this legend are invited to visit the station's newly built studios in Vanderbijlpark where Blewitt will be based. The Emerald Resort and Casino is the new home of OFM in Vanderbijlpark and is an addition to OFM Central South African presence which includes studio's in Bloemfontein and Potchefstroom.
