

Type Directors Club announces 'Type Drives Culture 2022' virtual conference

The Type Directors Club (TDC) has announced a global virtual conference called Type Drives Culture 2022 that will take place from 4-5 March. This conference will examine the way typography is used to create, transform and create communities and extend to broader cultures.

In honour of TDC's 75th anniversary, the conference theme is 'Type: the Next 75 Years', which will explore shifts in perspectives and conversations around contemporary global design and typography. Discussions will address the role of designers in navigating changes related to technology, communication, and social good.
