

Bongani Coka appointed to lead SAIPA

Bongani Coka has been appointed as the new chief executive of the South African Institute of Professional Accountants (SAIPA), with effect from 1 July 2016.

Prior to his appointment, Coka was CEO at Productivity SA for five years, after having served as the organisation's CFO for 10 years. His professional experience also includes 16 years in management, 10 years tutoring in tax and accounting and two years of drafting accounting training material experience.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>