

CDcom acquires Jawitz Properties national account

Media liaising and corporate communications company, Claire Densham Communications (CDcom) has won the national account of retail agency, Jawitz Properties.

The CDcom team has worked with Jawitz since May 2011, servicing their network of branches and franchises in the Western Cape and will now implement a new PR brand strategy, nationally.

Jawitz is one of the leading real estate companies in South, with 60 offices across the country.
