

Sho't Left Travel Week 2019 kicks off making travel affordable

The Sho't Left Travel Week 2019 has kicked off. To date, the platform has over 530 trade partners, from airlines, hotel groups and tour operators that are loading discounted travel deals of up to 50%.

©Michael Simons via 123RF

The platform currently has 56 coastal getaways, 51 bush retreats – 16 of which are in Limpopo – and 79 adventure experiences – most of which are in the Eastern Cape and Western Cape, with experiences ranging from as little as R70 to R500 per night, making travel affordable for every South African.

"There can be no better time for South Africans to choose their ideal local travel destination than during Sho't Left Travel Week, said Mashoto Mokgethi, South African Tourism's Head of Domestic Tourism. "What we are saying to South Africans is 'don't be a 'Mashaya'. With Sho't Left Travel Week, your travel inspiration can become a reality. Book your trip between the 23-29 September 2019 and travel anytime."

Sho't Left deals can only be booked from the 23-29 September 2019, but you can travel at anytime.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>