

Pullman Cape Town appoints Raynor Damons as director of food and beverage

Pullman Cape Town has appointed Raynor Damons as director of food and beverage as it continues executive team expansion.

Damons has 25 years of hospitality experience. His most recent position was as food and beverage manager at Westin Cape Town where he ensured all food and beverage outlets catered to the taste and pace of discerning travellers.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>