

Montego expands exco team with two new appointments

Local pet food manufacturer, Montego Pet Nutrition, has appointed Gavin Vermeulen as its sales manager, and Wilfred Cawood as its marketing manager to the company's executive committee (exco). In his new role, Vermeulen will lead all sales teams and forecasting both locally and internationally, while Cawood will drive the business forward with product development and marketing across all seven brands.

Vermeulen and Cawood have both been with Montego for nine years overseeing the sales and marketing divisions and reporting directly to managing director, Johan van Jaarsveld.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>