

Liqui Moly announces distribution partnership

Marine and motorbike enthusiasts can now find specialised Liqui Moly products on the shelves at more outlets in South Africa through a new distribution partnership signed with After Market Products (AMP), a distribution arm of Tuning Fork trading as Yamaha SA, announced in October. AMP will distribute the Liqui Moly range of oils, additives and service products to the various motorcycles, marine and accessory retailers, a move which is set to add enormous value to customers in these markets.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>