

Empowerment Capital appoints Bongumusa Makhathini as new CEO

Empowerment Capital Investment Partners has appointed Bongumusa Makhathini as its first chief executive officer. Makhathini is a Harvard Business School graduate and current chairman of the SABC Board.

He has held several directorships, including at SA Breweries (director of corporate affairs and transformation), British American Tobacco (director of legal and external affairs) and African Commercial Diplomacy Consulting (managing director).

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>